NCLCA Conference 2019: Racing toward Student Success

Saturday, October 5 ~ 9:00am - 4:30pm (Eastern)

NCLCA and Innovative Educators are excited to announce the second virtual live streaming at the 2019 NCLCA conference. The Virtual Conference sessions were carefully selected and presenters were chosen because of their expertise in the field. There will be six live streaming sessions on Saturday, October 5th.

Live Streaming Sessions:

- Introduce Faculty to the Power of Teaching Bloom's Taxonomy to Transform Learning
- Research & Recommendations For Retaining Adult Immigrant Students
- The Most Powerful Data for the Right People at the Right Time
- Eliminating Equity Gaps through Data and Institutional Change
- Win, Place, and Show: Creating Interactive Online Tutor Training
- Overcoming Obstacles in Online Tutoring

The presentation descriptions are listed in detail below.

This live streaming event is a great way to be a part of a truly remarkable group of professionals who will share techniques for increasing the success of your students, expanding your learning center's influence with social media, measuring performance, and documenting success.

Why Live Streaming

Can't attend in person?

We realize budgets are tight and travel might be tough, but that doesn't mean you have to miss out on this professional development opportunity. The live streaming event is perfect for those who can't join in person. Register for only $295, which gives you unlimited institutional access to all six live streaming sessions and the session recordings for 1 year.

Attending but want to share information?

Conference attendees will receive special add-on pricing (Only $99) for live streaming access so their colleagues on campus can participate in the six streamed sessions. In addition, the sessions will be available via recording for one year. Purchasing access to these presentations gives you the opportunity to share and collaborate with your colleagues when you get back to
